

June 4, 2009

Business briefs

High schoolers earn Young Women of Distinction awards

Three area high school seniors received the 2009 Young Women of Distinction Awards, presented by the Greater Rochester Women's Council, an affiliate of the Rochester Business Alliance, this week. The top honor — the Young Women of Distinction ATHENA Scholar — and a $3,000 scholarship was awarded to Jingwen Hu of Brighton High School.

Jordana Gilman of Brighton High School and Olivia Lee of Penfield High School were named Young Women of Distinction Scholars and will each receive $1,500 scholarships.

Maia Fitzstevens, a senior at Rochester's East High School, and Carly Britton, a senior at Webster Thomas High School, received honorable mentions and $750 scholarships.