By: Dan Smith

The Rochester Hispanic Business Association named the City of Rochester Commissioner of Neighborhood and Business Development its Hispanic Business Person of the Year.

The association said it honored R. Carlos Carballada for his 30-years as an active member of the Rochester community.

Before becoming a member of the Duffy administration, Carballada held key posts in the Rochester banking industry and served as a New York State Regent.

Carballada receives the Hispanic Business Person of the Year award at the association's event on September 30.
