

Sen. Gillibrand announces bill to help local small businesses

WHEC-TV

updated 7/23/2010 11:45:34 PM ET

Senator Kirsten Gillibrand was in Rochester today visiting the Rochester Business Alliance. She announced new legislation to help small businesses create well-paying jobs in the Finger Lakes Region.

Gillibrand said, "Small businesses create about two thirds of all new jobs. And so if we want to create jobs, we want to get ourselves out of this downturn, the best way is through small businesses."

This new bill would help support entrepreneurs, create incentives for small business investments and increase lending.